VICTINS

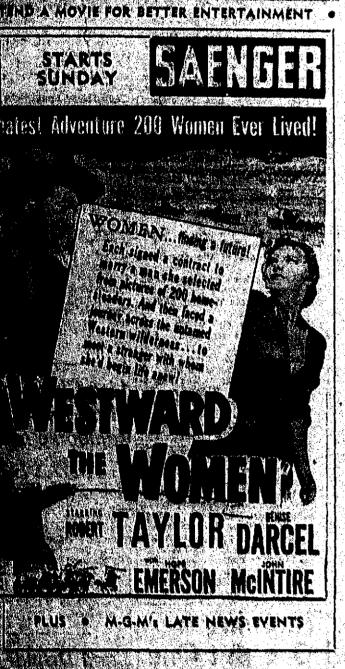

It has just been announced in Little Rock that the C. I. O. Community Services Committee has sent Special Representatives to Searcy and Dierks areas to aid tornado victims with money and personnel. Add this to the following Community services of the C. I. O. Amalgamated Clothing Workers:

- 1. The C.I.O. Amalgamated gave money for rebuilding to tornado-stricken members in Farmington, Missouri, about two weeks ago. This is a new local; workers there voted in C.I.O. on February 28, 1952.
- 2. The C.I.O. Amalgamated gave $7,500.00 to victims of recent Kansas and Missouri River floods in Miami, Oklahoma, and in Jefferson City and Kansas City, Missouri, all homes of C.I.O. Amalgamated locals.
- 3. Local and national organizations of the C.I.O. Amalgamated have led large and small communities in contributions to the Red Cross, Heart Fund, Community Chests, and many more civic and charitable organizations.
- 4. The C.I.O. Amalgamated owns, runs, and supports housing projects, nursery schools, health centers, hospitals, and banks, all for the aid of its members.
- 5. In World War I, World War II, and now the Korean conflict, the members and officers of the C.I.O. Amalgamated have pledged top cooperation with the government and our boys on the battlefields. This includes maintaining full production to provide apparel for the fighters, and participation in many home-front services to aid the war effort.

Ministers of all Leading Church Groups have endorsed the C. I. O. Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America as a Great Economic and Spiritual Force in the Community and in the Nation.
